yards of old wargs (i.e., wargs formed prior to fasci 27.6.) in which the warg dar is allowed to enjoy the privilege of grazing cattle, cutting leaves, firewood & timber for his own agricultural & domestic purposes. Kumaki lands in general are not the individual property of any ryot.

p 226 of S. Kanara
Manual Vol I Putub

Warg means a holding or estate, not necessarily one compact block.

p 224 ibid

Kadin means old cultivation (i.e. prior to the commencement of the East India Company's rule.

S. no 197/2 is Kumaki to the Kadin lands of the Saint Cross Church"

27

means that the land (No. 197) can be used by the church authorities for the purpose of exercising the Kumaki privileges mentioned above.

2. Kumaki lands are assigned generally to the marjdar because of the privileges they have got over the lands. No tree value (except for Pandat trees) is collected when Kumaki lands are assigned. Please.

See para 14 at p 60 of B80 VOT (Proof)

So also no land value is collected.

Why are Out.'s orders necessary?

The assignment in such cases seems a pure formality, which I should have thought the Cds. might be competent to sanction.
